

Senior Manager (f/m/d) Corporate Development

Online marketplace / investment firm

For our client – a leading European online marketplace / investment firm – we are currently looking for a Senior Manager (f/m/d) Corporate Development.

Responsibilities

- You will be responsible to work on and drive confidential strategic and organizational projects in an engaging team setup
- You will take the role of a sparring partner and thought leader for strategic discussions in your team and with top management
- The coordination and management of external parties (e.g., strategy consulting firms, external advisors) and other third parties such as business partners will be your responsibility
- Independent conduction of data-driven analyses, competitor assessments and customer trend reviews to shape the growth strategy are part of your tasks
- Preparation of workshops and meetings with top management to discuss project results, align on strategic directions and define new projects
- Regular project updates to top management as well as external stakeholders (investors, etc.)
- Support in selected M&A activities
- Close collaboration with all departments throughout the organization

Candidate Profile

- Successfully completed a university degree (ideally master's degree) in business or economics (ideally with a focus on strategy) and several years of professional experience in the field of business development or top management consultancy
- Enjoying conceptual work and putting together "bits & pieces" to a comprehensive picture
- Self-starter with a 'hands-on' mentality who is keen to drive change
- Very good understanding of digital business models, excellent analytical and strong "business judgment" as well as an entrepreneurial and solution-oriented way of thinking
- Proven experience in the development of strategies, business plans and roadmaps (process and methodology) as well as project management / facilitation
- Ability to communicate across all seniority levels, both in English and German
